Dedication

We, the class of 1967, dedicate our Pinnacle to Mr. George R. Weirich, who is highly respected and liked by his students. He has directed outstanding Junior and Senior Class Plays for three years and has coached tennis and golf at Hamburg Area High School. Mr. Weirich has always taken an interest in the senior classes and it is our hope that he will continue to serve senior classes of the future.

Seniors

Although we will look forward to beginning a new and exciting life, many tears will be shed at the close of our final year at Hamburg Area High School. However, we have many wonderful memories to fill sad moments — classes, school pals, games, activities, our class trip to Washington, the Senior Play, the Prom, or just walking through crowded halls. Everytime we see the colors burgundy and white or the class flower, white carnation with burgundy tint, and hear the class motto, "Out of school life into life's school", we shall recall those unforgettable years.

Senior Class Play

"Pillow Talk" a bright sophisticated comedy based directly on the original screenplay, was presented by the Senior Class April 21 and 22, under the direction of Mr. George R. Weirich.

The use of a party telephone line is the basis of the plot. On one end is an interior decorator trying to use the line for business purposes, while on the other half is a playboy song writer who devotes much of his time singing to his girl friends over the phone. After his cute schemes backfire, the party line Casanova finds himself for the first time in love, and finally wins his party line foe.

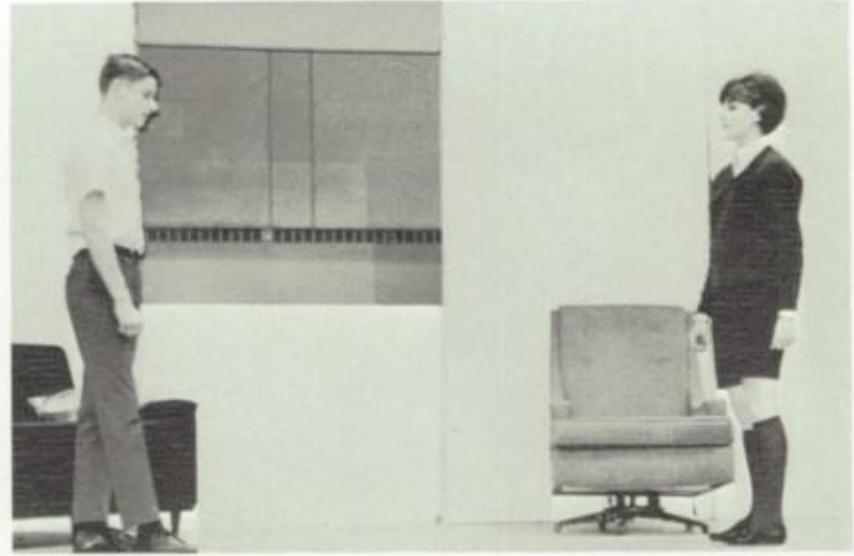

This delightful comedy involved many weeks of hard work but proved to be very effective in our amateur production. It was a great success for the Class of '67.

Junior Class Play

This year the Junior Class chose as its play a three act comedy by David Rogers entitled GET WITCH QUICK. The play centered around a college for witches in Salem, Mass. It showed what happens when a very young, naive, and normal male substitute was hired to fill a vacancy in an all girl college for witches. Needless to say the audience was held in suspense and kept in stitches as the play unfolded. The actors were able to create the moods needed to make the play a success only under the capable directing of Mr. George Weirich.

I need more sleep.

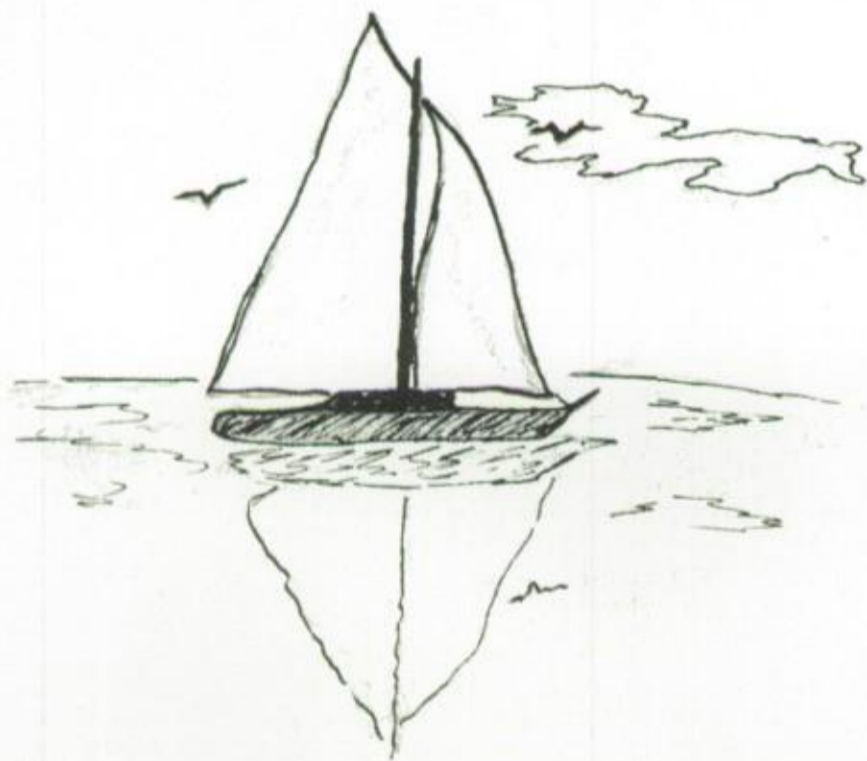

I hope Phil's not in the audience.

Where's that cat?

LIBRARY CLUB

Need help in the library? Just ask for the assistance of one of the patient girls behind the desk. The members of the Library Club aid Mrs. Long in the many duties of a librarian. Through their efforts, the library is run more efficiently. Student librarians are trained to be responsible, and to aid others. Several of the students enjoy this work so much they enter the increasingly wide field open to a librarian.

The club is a member of the Teenage Library Association. Annually the girls attend the TLA conference to exchange ideas and learn better and newer library techniques.

After beginning the season in whirlwind fashion with three wins and a tie, the tough competition of league play cast the Hawks a winning season. Hamburg participated in a double-header soccer match in Municiple Stadium where they were upset by Oley 1-0. The future looks bright for Hamburg as many lettermen will be returning next year.

Hawkettes Beat Champs

Last fall, Hamburg's Hawkettes, led by co-captains Jane Knoblauch and Nancy Ritter, fought diligently for their victory over Tulpehocken. (The Tulpehocken Hockey team was in first place at the end of the Hockey Season.) Hawkette, Nancy Ritter, scored the only goal needed to beat the champs, who were left scoreless throughout the game. Although Hamburg finished the season holding fourth place, the Hockey Team will long remember that game at Tulpehocken.

VARSDITY BASKETBALL

Four returning lettermen plus last year's county champion J. V. team composed this year's team. The going proved rough for the Hawks early in the season, but through determination and hustling the team came through with many fine victories. Included in these were a string of sixteen consecutive victories and an outstanding defeat of Conestoga Valley in District 3 competition. By reaching the District 3 final, the Hawks went further than any previous Hamburg team. Coach Larry Werner looks forward to an equally fine season next year.

J.V. BASKETBALL

These future varsity cagers found the going rough in the Western Division this year. But our ninth and tenth graders, usually playing eleventh graders, played many good games and defeated the league-leading Governor Mifflin J.V.'s. Much can be expected in the future from this young crew.

Well, pick it up.

Bowling

One of the newest sports to come to Hamburg, bowling, is quickly catching on as a fine team sport. Weekly practices at a local alley provide a change of pace from school activities for the team members.

Begun only last year, the team is really coming on strong. Hopefully the boys will take their team to the top this year.

The wrestling team, off to its best start ever, produced seven wins in their first nine meets. The team has an excellent chance to capture the league championship. This spirited team, showing much determination and muscle, has four senior starters. The future looks just as bright for Coach Bill Edwards' grapplers.

Do you take it back?

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Although the Hawkettes had a lot of hustle, spunk, and skill, they were unable to come out on top in the girls' basketball league. The team, coached by Mrs. Lousie Schwartz, sported a 1-8 league record.

Despite the fact that their season was not entirely successful, the girls should be congratulated for their efforts.

Track and Field

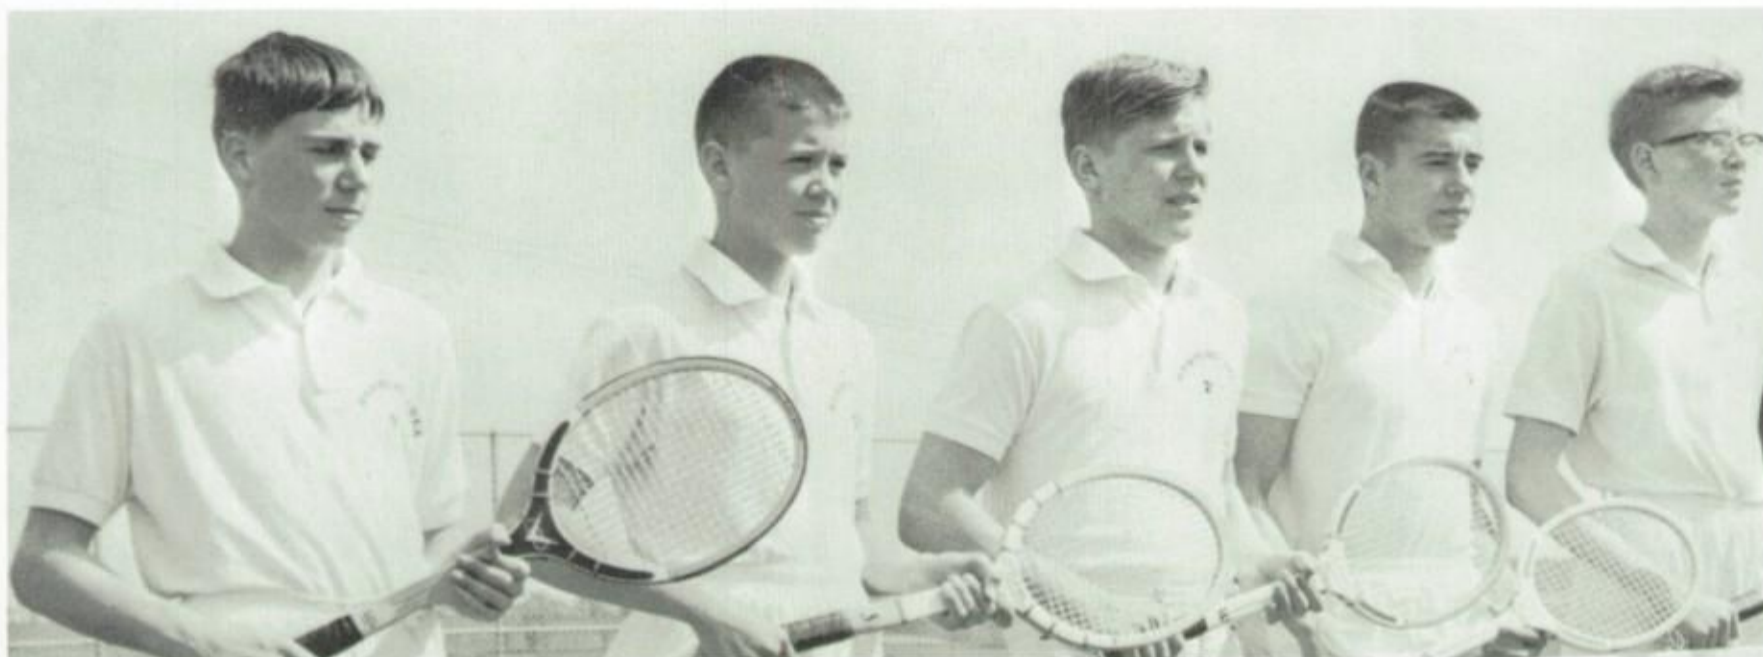

Track and field is one of the new sports in our school. This past season the team had meets against Wilson, Governor Mifflin, Schuylkill Valley, and a few other teams. Although the team didn't win any of its meets, the coaches Mr. Edwards and Mr. Fisher should have some great potential on the team.

Tennis

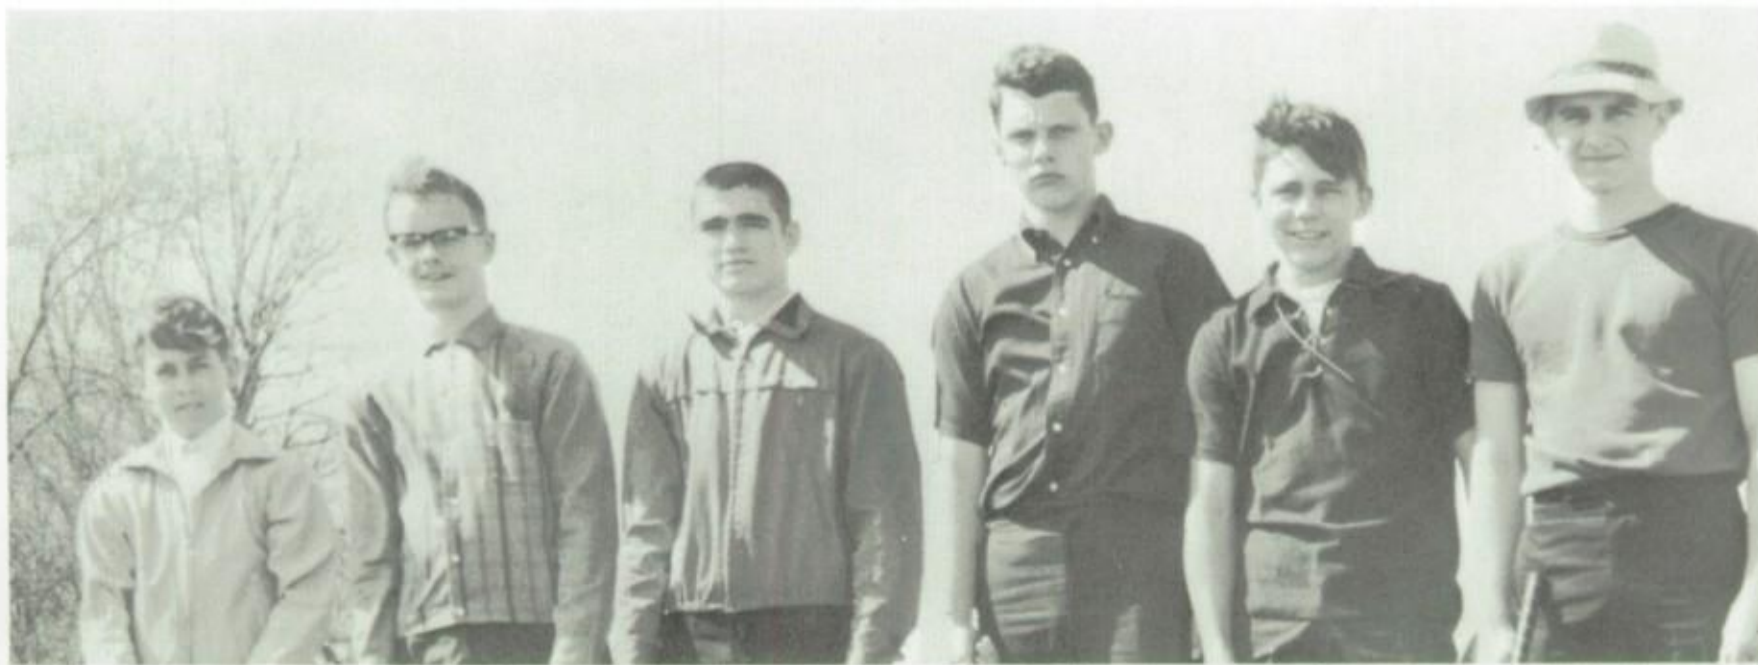

The tennis team, which attracted students from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes, was coached by Mr. Stitzel.

The team's record this season was not too good, but the team gained experience and should improve its record in the coming seasons.

Golf

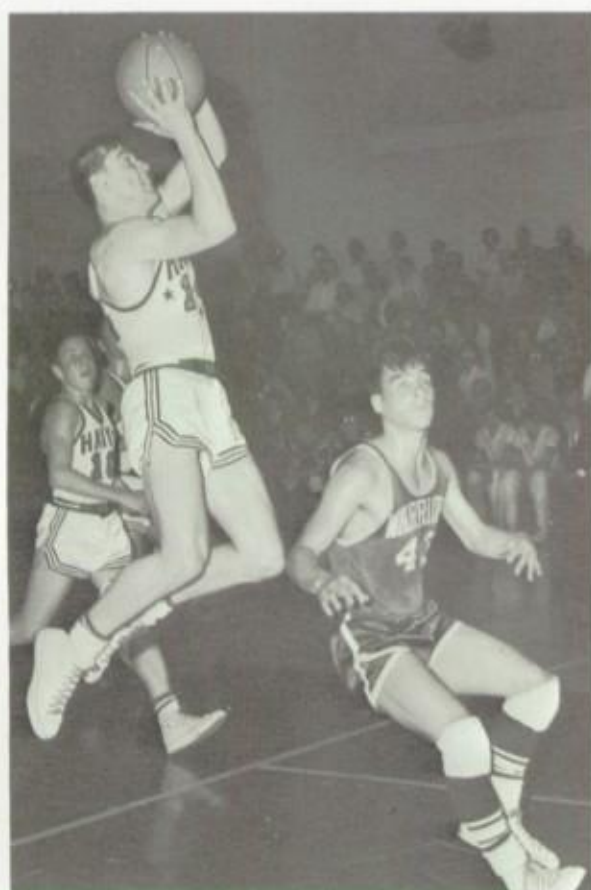

The golf team is another new sport at Hamburg. The team played all of its matches on the Green Acres Golf Course. As any team only in its second season, their record was fair. They played Kutztown, Schuylkill Valley, Fleetwood, Muhlenburg, Conrad Weiser, and Brandywine. This year's team had more experience and the sport's outlook is improving.

Senior Cheerleaders

In addition to cheering the Hawks on to victory, the cheerleaders sponsored dances and attended cheering clinics. This year they were under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Sandel. The girls did a fine job of boosting the morale at the games.
